TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some tonic. IRON enters into almost every physical process for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC
For Weakness, Indigestion, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. C. H. Hixley, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."
Dr. W. N. WATERBURY, 1219 Third Street, St. Louis, Mo., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."
Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

CHIEF JUSTICE WAITE

DIES SUDDENLY IN WASHINGTON OF ACUTE PNEUMONIA.

A Slight Cold Contracted By Exposure Results in Death—His Death Wholly Unexpected—The Remains to Be Buried at Toledo—Brief Sketch of His Life.

CHIEF JUSTICE WAITE.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Morrison R. Waite, chief justice of the supreme court of the United States, died very suddenly at 6 o'clock this morning from acute pneumonia. He died without a moment's warning in the presence only of a professional nurse. On Saturday night he walked to the home of Senator Hearst, because of the illness of his coachman. He also walked home. Next morning he complained of feeling unwell, and a physician was summoned who announced that he was suffering from a slight cold.

He remained in the house during Sunday, and when Monday came, conferred with two of the associate judges and his physician and determined to go to court because of the decision to be delivered in the telephone case, deciding, however, that he would not read the decision, but would transfer the duty to Justice Blatchford. The exposure consequent on this journey accentuated the cold, and on Tuesday he was advised to go to bed. Nothing serious was expected, but on Wednesday Miss Waite decided to telegraph her brother, Mr. C. C. Waite, of Cincinnati, vice president and general manager of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad, who arrived here yesterday afternoon. Surgeon Ruth, U. S. N., the physician in attendance and a friend of the family, advised Mr. Waite on his arrival that it would be advisable to call in another physician in consultation. Dr. Gardner was summoned and the result was that last night at midnight the patient and family was assured that there was no danger.

At 5:30 this morning the nurse heard the chief justice moan and on going to the bedside, was informed that he felt pretty well. The nurse retired and a half hour later hearing a gasp ran to the bedside and found a corpse. Mr. Waite and Miss Mary Waite were immediately brought into the room, but too late, the father was dead.

Mrs. Waite will arrive in Los Angeles today from another part of California, whither she journeyed a fortnight ago. It is already announced that the remains will be taken to Toledo, O., for burial, but none of the funeral details will be determined until Mrs. Waite is heard from.

So little was a fatal termination expected that Miss Waite called last evening on friends living on the same block with her and remained an hour or more gaily chatting.

Morrison Remick Waite was the seventh chief justice of the United States, and was born in Lyme, Conn., November 29, 1816. He graduated at Yale college in 1837, studied law and began to practice in Maumee City, O. In 1849 he was a member of the legislature, and in 1850 he removed to Toledo. He declined repeated nominations to congress, and also a seat on the supreme bench of the state. In 1871-2 he was one of the counsel of the United States before the tribunal of arbitration at Geneva. In 1873 he presided over the constitutional convention of Ohio. On January 21, 1874, he became chief justice of the United States, and since that time has resided in Washington.

His home in Washington is a wide brown stone building of three or four stories, on I street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth. He lived well, and often gave dinners to his fellow judges and the other noted people of Washington society.

He was eligible for retirement several years ago, but he preferred to remain on the bench to having the government pension of $10,000 a year. Although seventy-four years old he has been quite active and vigorous up to a short time ago.

His children living are C. C. Waite, of Cincinnati, vice president and general manager of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad; Edward Waite, a lawyer of Toledo, and a daughter, Miss Mary White. He has six grandchildren living.

The justices of the supreme court who were summoned to Chief Justice Waite's residence soon after his death proceeded early in the day to the consultation room at the capitol, to which the other justices were summoned. At 11 o'clock a meeting was convened, at which Justice Miller presided, and at which a brief notification to the president of the United States and the presiding officers of both houses of congress, were adopted. The marshal of the supreme court immediately, upon receipt of the news, draped the seat of the chief justice with crape.

At 12 o'clock the supreme court chamber had become crowded. Within the bar were Attorney General Garland, Solicitor General Jenks, Benjamin F. Butler and the leading practitioners before the court. As the justices entered, the marshal significantly announced the entrance of the "associate justices" of the supreme court. Immediately upon taking their seats, Justice Miller, his voice broken by emotion and speaking with the deepest feeling, said it was his painful duty to announce that the honorable chief justice of the supreme court of the United States had departed this life at his residence in this city at 6:30 this morning.

This was not the occasion for any extended notice of the sad event. He would merely announce that the court would stand adjourned until one week from Monday next. Without another word the marshal announced the adjournment of the court, and the justices filed out of the room.

At the same time that this brief formality had taken place, the president pro tem of the senate had called that body to order, and after the reading of the journal, handed to the clerk, who read to the senate the note signed by Justice Miller, announcing the sudden death of the chief justice.

Senator Edmunds said that he would move the appointment of a committee of five senators to represent that body at the funeral, and if that motion was adopted, he would move that the senate, as a further mark of respect, stand adjourned until Monday next. Both resolutions were adopted and the senate adjourned.

In the house, after the reading of the journal, the announcement communicated by Justice Miller, was read from the desk, and Representative Taylor, of Ohio, supplemented it by a brief reference to the able and honorable career of the late chief justice and presented resolutions of respect and sorrow and for the appointment of a committee to attend the funeral.

Resolutions were adopted and the house adjourned as a mark of respect.

President, pro tempore, Ingalls, has appointed Senators Sherman, Hoar, Wilson, Pugh and George as the committee to represent the senate at the funeral of Chief Justice Waite.

Senator Edmunds was selected as the first member of the committee, but was excused on account of ill-health.

The News at Toledo.

TOLEDO, O., March 23.—The announcement of Chief Justice Waite's death caused a profound sensation in this city, his old home. At 9 a. m. flags were flying at half mast and business was practically suspended.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Express Trains Collide Near Pittsburg—A Number Injured.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—Fast express trains No. 1 and 6, running thirty-five miles an hour collided on a sharp curve near Rock point station, about 8 o'clock this morning. A mistake of the train dispatcher in naming the passing point is said to have been the cause.

Cyrus P. Gray, baggagemaster on No. 1, died shortly after he was taken from the wreck.

George Orr, engineer of No. 1, reported fatally injured.

William Banker, engineer of No. 6, badly but not fatally hurt.

Thomas Brough, fireman of No. 6, badly hurt.

John Reynolds, fireman No. 1, seriously injured.

Martin Hartman, passenger, leg broken.

Fred. Grace, passenger, leg bruised and head cut.

James Connelly, conductor No. 1, bruised and cut.

James Bonner, conductor No. 6, shoulder dislocated and arm cut.

Albert Reinhardt, news agent, back injured.

A number of passengers were bruised and cut, none seriously. All of the injured were taken to Beaver Falls. No trains will be able to pass the scene of the wreck before evening.

Baggage man Gray leaves a widow and two children. Engineer Orr lives in this city, has a wife and daughter.

A Mixed Passenger Derailed.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24.—A north bound freight passenger train on the Portland & Willamette Valley railway, was derailed fourteen miles south of this city yesterday afternoon. Conductor Coulburn was thrown forward on his head, fracturing his skull, and will probably die. Ten passengers were injured, including three ladies. Nothing more serious than broken bones. Two cars of cattle were killed.

Responsible for Five Deaths.

GRANBY, Ont., March 24.—The coroner's jury in the case of the accident on the line of the Northern railroad near here, yesterday, took testimony until 3 o'clock this morning. The jury rendered a verdict, holding Conductor Glassford and Engineer Foster, of the snow plow train, which caused the collision, responsible for deaths of five men who were killed in the accident.

An Agreement Reached.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 24.—Much satisfaction is manifested here at the announcement that arrangements have been made between the Dominion government and the Canadian Pacific railroad, whereby the latter relinquishes its right to railroad monopoly in this province. Great credit is given Premier Greenway for his independent stand in maintaining Manitoba's cause. The province will probably now take from the Canadian Pacific the southwestern branch from Winnipeg through the southern portion of the province, and establish connection with the Northern Pacific at West Lorne.

Ex-Governor Pillsbury's Reply.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 24.—Ex-Governor John S. Pillsbury makes a public statement in reply to the assertions of the Farmers' alliance that the regents of the state university diverted a fund of $800,000 from its proper use. He says the regents acted under authority of law and have observed the act of congress creating the fund by furnishing an agricultural department to the university quite as good as a separate college.

Met in Valm.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The Central Traffic association committee on relations with western roads has adjourned, after an agreement regarding the proposed change in the proportions of through rates.

Eno Cannot Return.

NEW YORK, March 24.—United States District Attorney Walker says Defendant Eno cannot return from Canada. Should he do so he will be tried.

IT IS PRACTICALLY DEAD.

THAT IS CHIEF ARTHUR'S OPINION OF THE STRIKE.

He is Now Waiting for the Men to Get Tired—Cincinnati Shoemakers' Troubles Near a Solution—Cases With Burlington Seals Sidetracked—Labor Notes.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The Sun has a special dispatch from Chicago, saying: In an interview with Chief Arthur he is reported to have said there would be no strike on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, or Northwestern roads; that the strike was practically dead, and that he was now waiting until the men got tired.

"Part of that article is right," said Mr. Arthur, "and part of it is false. It is incorrect to say that there is no use in holding out any longer. I hold a different view. It is a fact that we have decided to have no strike on any of the other roads. It was always our policy to keep the strike from spreading, but that policy has been maintained without any fight between the conservative and radical elements. I am not going to say anything now as to how our prospects look. Time alone will decide how we will come out of this fight, but I am going to stand by the men as long as they are determined to keep it up. The strike was not of my seeking. Its settlement will not be precipitated so as to result disadvantageously to the men by any act of mine."

It is Plain to be Seen.

CHICAGO, March 24.—It is generally recognized here that the bottom has fallen out of the Burlington strike; that the men are beaten beyond redemption and that the Brotherhood will hereafter have no grip on the Burlington and the men themselves admit this, in private conversation, but Chief Arthur says that the men will never be declared off so long as there is a dollar in the treasury or funds can be raised by assessment and the discipline among the men is so strong that there will be no breaking off of ranks in an effort to obtain their old places.

The Burlington, in flaming advertisements, announces this morning that it has surmounted its difficulties; that its management remains in the hands of its officials, and that the Burlington cannot bail and fast Omaha trains' service will be resumed on Sunday and Monday, respectively. This is recognized by the more conservative of the strikers as putting a quietus on the claims of the radicals that the company is still in a crippled condition.

The announcement from St. Paul that the Brotherhood would hereafter move Burlington cars on roads centering at that point, is merely the outline of the decision arrived at by the St. Paul grievance committee on Wednesday night, under pressure from Chief Arthur, who has all along contended that the troubles should be confined to the Burlington. So far as Chicago is concerned the strike has become a dead issue, and it is probable that the deserted headquarters at the Grand Pacific will be closed up by Monday, and that Arthur, Sargent, Hoge and others will return home.

Nearing an End.

CINCINNATI, March 24.—Testimony in the shoemaker troubles before the arbitrators, Howard Douglas and Father Mackey, was concluded at a late hour Thursday. The two local arbitrators then telegraphed Mr. Powderly, the third member, to meet them at Baltimore for the purpose of deciding the case. Messrs. Cavanaugh and Skellington will accompany the arbitrators east. T. B. McGuire left for Philadelphia Thursday evening.

Seven Hundred Cars Sidetracked.

Dubuque, Iowa, March 24.—Seven hundred cars bearing Chicago, Burlington & Quincy seals, are sidetracked on the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City, between Dubuque and St. Paul. The company claims they do not contain Chicago, Burlington & Quincy freight, but the Brotherhood refuse to haul them.

St. Louis Wagonmakers.

ST. LOUIS, March 24.—Eight hundred wagonmakers in twenty shops are threatening to strike for a new scale of wages.

CRUELTY TO CONVICTS.

Three Arkansas Prison Wardens to Be Tried for Murder.

COAL HILL, Ark., March 24.—Governor Hughes and the board of penitentiary commissioners arrived here yesterday afternoon to further investigate the outrages at the convict camp. The 149 convicts have all have to sleep in a little room 9x18 feet, negroes and whites, sick and well, on beds of shucks and straw that have not been changed for years. The only covering is a thin blanket, so dirty that that sickening stench arises from it. Many convicts have to sleep in the wet clothes in which they work. Their food consists of salt pork and corn bread in small quantities.

There were thirty men on the stockade who were examined by the physician whose backs were almost solid sores from whippings given them, and ten men have broken or sprained limbs or backs hurt. Dozens of them testified that sick men were afraid to complain, as every man who complained or failed to do his task was whipped. Fifty men were required to work all winter without shoes or socks in water from an inch to one and a half feet deep. Whenever a convict was killed by sheer brutality, the prison physician would make out a certificate that he died of a congestive chill or something of the kind. The investigation will be continued. Wardens Scott, Gifford and Hudson will be tried for murder.

Shot Him by Mistake.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 24.—Roman Barnes, a young farmer, was assassinated Monday night near Dover, Ark., being shot from ambush. Wednesday Jefferson Matthews was arrested on suspicion. INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, March 24.—The water in the Wapsi river is higher at this place than it has been for eighty years. Part of the ice went out Thursday, tearing down some buildings near the river. Barnes and Sapp rank among the leading business men of Goodland, and the entire community is shocked at their sudden and unexpected fate. SATURDAY EVE., MARCH 24, 1888.

The sun crossed the line a few days ago, and according to general belief this accounts for the terrible storms in some sections.

It required but a few lines from the BULLETIN to get the "bold and fearless writer" of the Court street organ real mad, and the little fellow has gone to making faces already.

It has been suggested that the attention of the grand jury be called to the "bold and fearless writer" of the Maysville Democrat and that he be indicted for deliberate and willful murder—of the "King's English."

Another mass meeting was held at Flemingsburg Thursday to protest against the addition of Rowan County to Fleming. A committee was appointed to go to Frankfort and tell the Legislature what to do in the matter.

The case of Robert A. Cochran against the Citizens' Gas Light Company will likely be tried at the approaching term of the Circuit Court. The plaintiff commenced taking depositions this morning at the office of Cochran & Son, to be read as evidence in the case. W. B. McDonough is expected here next Tuesday as a witness.

To Be Ready For Business November 1st.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Thursday the lines marking the approaches to the new Huntington bridge were decided upon, and work on the bridge will be pushed. President Ingalls said that he expected all the work both on the bridge and on the river line from Covington to Ashland to be completed by the 1st of next October. The new line from here to Newport News, which will probably be known as the Chesapeake and Ohio Valley Road, will most certainly be opened for through business by the 1st of November next."

Strange But Nice are Fortune's Ways.

To buy or not to buy was the question that three ladies, Mrs. H. De Laup, 377 St. Ann street, Mrs. Honore Flotte, 281 Bayou Road, and Miss Mary Henry, 208 St. Philip street, asked when Mrs. V. Gilly, 208 St. Philip street, a vender of Louisiana State Lottery tickets, called upon them with the last tenth ticket she had. A mutual investment of a quarter of a dollar was resolved upon on one-tenth of ticket No. 71,575, the number that, in the grand monthly drawing, February 7, 1888, drew the capital prize of $150,000, and Mrs. Gilly presented the ticket last Thursday and received therefor a check. Nice, wasn't it, for a 25c. investment each?—New Orleans, (La.) Picayune, February 12.

Purchase of a Fine Mare.

Who says Mason County is not bound to have fine trotters? James W. Fitzgerald yesterday purchased, for himself and Elie Clift, Pearl Medium, record 2:27, to train this season and then retire to Limestone Stock Farm as a brood mare. She is worthy of a place of high honor on any stock farm, being of royal lineage, sired by Happy Medium, the sire of forty in the 2:30 list. Pearl Medium's dam was Pearl, 2:30, by Gentle Breeze; second dam by Gill's Vermont; third dam by Bay Eagle, son of Grey Eagle. But she does not rest her claim alone on her high breeding, for she has already proved herself quite a successful race mare. In her three-year-old form she started three times, winning twice, and was second in the other race. In her four-year-old form she started seven times, winning three races, was second twice, fourth once and was once unplaced, closing the season with a record of 2:27. She is coming fine this spring, and we predict for her a brilliant season on the turf. She was bought of Flaughner & Stivers, of Ripley. The price is reported at $8,000.

TATE'S DEFAUCATION.

No New Developments and the Exact Amount of the Deficit Will Not be Known for Some Days.

The Democratic members of the Legislature are taking steps to go to the very bottom of State Treasurer Tate's defalcation, and give the people the facts in the case. No one is to be shielded, and if any of the other State officials are involved in the matter nothing will be left undone to bring the guilty parties to justice.

The Legislature has adopted a resolution "that a joint committee, consisting of three members from the House and four from the Senate, be appointed by the Speakers of the respective houses, whose duty it shall be to ascertain whether or not the Auditor has complied with the law in respect to settlements with the Treasurer, and also whether or not the Auditor and Treasurer have once in each month made a settlement of the receipts and disbursements of the money at the treasury, of every description, under appropriate heads, and whether or not the Secretary of State has complied with the law in regard thereto.

"Said Committee shall also report any failure upon the part of either of said officers to discharge their duty."

Governor Buckner has been asked by the Legislature to order the investigation being carried on in the Treasurer's office to be conducted without the assistance or interference of Auditor Hewitt. In this connection Mr. Hewitt claims he has complied with the law as he understood it.

The defaulting Treasurer is reported to be in Montreal, Canada.

HELD OVER.

Ed Porter, Frank Hasson and Snel Farley Sent to Jail to Answer the Charge of Robbery.

The examining trial of Ed Porter, Frank Hasson and Snel Farley, on charge of robbery, came off yesterday afternoon before Mayor Pearce. The accused were held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court, and, in default of bail, in the sum of $500 each, were committed to jail.

Pat Shea, the man whom they are accused of robbing, was in the "Big Sandy" saloon on the night in question. He was considerably under the influence of liquor, and displayed a roll of bills. Porter and Hasson were present at the time. Afterwards, Porter, Hasson and Shea came up street to Omar Dodson's corner. Here they were joined by Farley, who claimed he was Marshal and placed Shea under arrest. He proceeded to try Shea then and there, and personated both Mayor and Marshal, with Porter and Hasson as deputies. Shea was fined $50 and costs, after which he was marched to the corner of Limestone and Second, where a scuffle occurred, during which he claims he was robbed. He was not too drunk to realize what was being done and called lustily for help. He thinks he lost $15 or $20. It was proved that Porter deposited about $17 with a party a few hours afterwards for safe keeping.

EUROPEAN CABLE GOSSIP.

A CHARACTERISTIC OF ENGLAND'S PRESENT GOVERNMENT.

Bulgaria Will Remain Loyal to Europe.

Indications of a French Crisis—Roumanian Military Conference—European Floods Continue—Foreign Notes.

LONDON, March 24.—The policy of conciliation which has for a long time been a leading characteristic of the present government, has never been more strongly marked than in their recent action of conferring the Knighthood of the Garter, made vacant by the death of the Duke of Rutland, upon the Marquis of Londonderry. The object of this delicate bait is so palpable that it is amusing to the opposition to see the efforts made by the government to retain power and to lose none of the adherents.

Although denied by the government, it is none the less true that the lord lieutenant of Ireland did offer the resignation of his post some time ago to Lord Salisbury, who, by promises, prevailed upon him to withdraw. Like most of his predecessors, Lord Londonderry by residing in Ireland and acquiring an internal acquaintance with her actual distress and needs, became a convert to the Home Rule. When he offered his resignation, the premier kept him in office by promising that the government would do all they could to alleviate the condition of Ireland, and vague promises of a possible Home Rule scheme were made.

Now the honor of being made a Knight of the Garter is conferred upon him as a final clincher to keep him in the ranks of Toryism. That this is done in violation of precedent, and that the recipient is a young man who has neither been long in the service of the government nor active in administrative legislation, will serve only to strengthen the opinion that the Garter is to keep Lord Londonderry safe within the fold, and from giving public expression to his Home Rule convictions, if not entirely obliterate that.

According to precedent the vacant Garter should go to the Earl of Carnarvon, who has served the government long and faithfully, but he, as lord lieutenant of Ireland, became an ardent Home Ruler, and resigned the viceroy, and is in consequence out of the question.

Bulgaria Stands Firm.

SOFIA, March 24.—The council of ministers has decided not to reply to the port's dispatch declaring Prince Ferdinand's position illegal.

M. Natchevitz, minister of finance, in an interview, said the government had no intention to proclaim the independence of Bulgaria. The country would remain loyal to Europe.

The tirade of the sultan was sent to Minister Stambouloff without ceremony by telegraph reminding him that in August last the port had informed Prince Ferdinand that his position in Bulgaria is illegal. The Bulgarian government knows that the port is not able, or if able, unwilling, against its own interest, to expend a piaster or sacrifice a life for the purpose of enforcement of the sultan's tirade. Ferdinand as a Catholic and foreigner may have but slight hold personally upon the sympathies of the Bulgars, but representing the National idea he has them fairly at his back, and will not leave Bulgaria unless compelled by force, if he is the man he is reported to be.

Signs of a French Crisis.

PARIS, March 24.—Gen. Fevrier will preside at the council to be held to inquire into the conduct of Gen. Boulanger. The latter has been summoned to appear before the council.

M. Gaillard, acting for the Extremists, will give notice in the chamber of deputies of an interpellation on the general policy of the government.

Gen. Boulanger arrived here last night, coming at a late hour to avoid a popular demonstration.

It is only next year that the French chamber of deputies must be dissolved, and a new president be elected under the constitution. The Royalists hope to crush the republic, the Extremists hope to make it a commune, the Radicals hope to make it more democratic, and the Center or Moderates hope to conserve it as it is. The Imperialist, Royalist and Anarchist elements all regard war as their seasonable opportunity.

Military Conference.

VIENNA, March 24.—The king of Roumania conferred to-day with the emperor and the leading military officials, including Gen. Schottfeld, of the Transylvania army corps. It is supposed that the object was to discuss the probable invasion of Bulgaria by Russia.

In the Russo-Turkish war Russia did not respect Roumanian independence, but marched across her territory, used her frontier for military operations, compelled her to become an ally, and then robbed her of some of her territory by way of compensating her for the favor she had done her.

Should Russia force a war and fail in her designs the Balkan states would probably be molded into a confederacy as a strong buffer against Russian aggression.

Unprecedented Floods.

LONDON, March 24.—History has but rarely recorded such extensive floods as now prevail throughout eastern Europe. The heavy snowfall has swollen nearly all the streams of Hungary and southwestern Russia. The Danube and all its tributaries that drain all the highlands of Austria and Balkan states south of the Carpathians into the Black sea; the Dniester, Bug and Dniester with their numerous tributaries draining Galicia and Russian Poland and the northern slopes of the Carpathians into the Baltic are all overflowing their banks, and here and there dangerously inundating the valleys, sweeping away villages and destroying lives and property.

Houses and Crops Destroyed.

PESTH, March 24.—The situation in the flooded districts in Hungary is appalling. The dikes at Bakes are falling and the town is doomed. Fifty or more houses have already collapsed. Floating ice has destroyed many houses in Zemplin. In the adjacent country the stores of corn and food have been lost.

The Dniester and Dniester Rivers.

ODESSA, March 24.—The Dniester and Dniester rivers have overflowed, and the villages along their banks are isolated. The roads are impassable except for rafts. The Sebastopol railway is submerged for a distance of several miles.

Villages Inundated.

VIENNA, March 24.—Floods are doing great damage in Croatia. At Chaba coffins have been washed out of the cemetery and are floating about. Portions of Agrani are submerged. New Lastomer and six other villages are inundated. The rising Laboresa river is doing much damage.

Trouble in Borneo.

LONDON, March 24.—The inhabitants of Padas have revolted against the British Borneo company, and have murdered four policemen and burned the town of Batu.

They also attempted to destroy Mambakuk, but were prevented by the interference of the British man-of-war Rambler. The company recently acquired Padas, and the inhabitants have since been discontented.

The Dead at Oporto.

OPORTO, March 24.—The bodies of sixty-six victims of the theater fire were exposed for identification to-day. Many heartrending scenes were witnessed. Besides the bodies there are also fifty-three heaps of unrecognizable remains.

The Sikkim Expedition.

CALCUTTA, March 24.—The Sikkim expedition has captured the Tibetan works. The defenders fled to the jungle.
